Airplane Kit for Babies and Toddlers

- Car seat (Even if not booking a seat for baby – it can be gate checked)
  - and/or CARES Restraint by Kids Fly Safe for children who weigh 22 – 44 pounds
- Stroller (It can be gate-checked too)
- Diapers (Enough to make it through the flight, plus 3 – 6 extra)
- Diaper Cream (Tube must be smaller than 3.4 ounces due to airline regulations)
- Diaper Wipes
- Changing Pad (Disposable pads are great!)
- Change of Clothes for Baby (And maybe one for you)
- Plastic Bags for Soiled Diapers (Air sickness bags can be used for this as well)
- Bottles (Enough to make it through the flight, plus 2 – 3 extra)
- Nursing Cover-Up
- Pacifiers (Plenty of ‘em stuffed in more than one bag to make retrieval easy)
- Powdered Formula (Pre-measured into a plastic container with serving dividers)
- Healthy Snacks
- “Forbidden” Snacks
- No-Spill Snack Container
- A Sippy-Cup
- Bib (Plastic-coated so it is easily wiped clean)
- Baby Spoon
- Baby Fork
- Baby Food (In plastic containers – twice as much as you think you will need)
- Baby Medications (Ibuprofen for sore ears and anything else baby may need)
- Nose Aspirator (The blue booger-bulb for infants)
- Digital Thermometer
- Smart Phone and Plenty of Kid Movies (And a couple “grown-up” movies for you in case the baby actually sleeps!)
- 3 – 9 Favorite Books (Depending on the length of the flight)
- 1 – 2 New Books
- 1 – 2 Favorite Small Toys
- Cuddle Object (Favorite blankie or stuffed toy)
- 2 – 6 New Small Toys (You can gift wrap these for older toddlers to buy some time)
- Pack of Fat, Triangular Crayons or Washable Markers and a Coloring Book
- Stickers
- Flash Cards, Lacing Cards or Other Compact Activity (For older toddlers)

Copyright ©Travel Mamas 2018